

STORY

Tips for Getting Started

- Think of something funny or scary you can write about.

- Draw small pictures of the characters in your story.

- Act out what your characters will say and do in your story.

- Talk with a partner. Your partner might need to ask questions about what happens in your story.

