

Personal Narrative

When you write a personal narrative, remember to:

- Use the first person (I) voice
- Begin in a way that grabs the reader's attention
- Include only important events and details
- Keep to the topic and tell the events in order
- Include dialogue when appropriate
- Write from your own point of view in your own voice
- End in a way that concludes the story and ties up loose ends