

Personal Narrative

When you write a personal narrative, remember to:

- Use the first-person "I" voice
- Start with a high-impact beginning that grabs the reader's attention
- Relate events in a logical sequence
- Use details that inform the reader and enrich the narrative
- Write with a distinctive voice that is all your own
- Include dialogue when appropriate
- Provide a meaningful ending that ties up loose ends