

Writing a News Article

- Write a headline that makes your readers want to read the article.
- Write a beginning that gets the readers interested in the topic.
- Include facts in the first paragraph that answer Who? What? When? Where? How? and Why?
- Include other interesting details in the other paragraphs.
- Use quotations from people who know about the event.
- Write factual information only. Do not include your opinions. The opinions of other people can be included in quotations.
